Stating your opinion today is just the start. As the elections unfold, you can come back to update your position and just check in on the current chance for each candidate, each party to win, and pretty much anything else relating to the 2016 election.

Best of all, we'll be giving out prizes for our top users, so be sure to check out where you stand on the leaderboards.

This exciting game is powered by Pivit, who also offers the same game for Sports, Entertainment, Finance and many more categories.
